THE CATERPILLAR'S ADVENTURE

Karen met her friend Linda on the sidewalk. Linda looked worried.

“What’s wrong?” Karen asked.

“Look,” Linda said. She pointed at the street.

Karen couldn’t see anything. “What?” she asked.

“The caterpillar,” Linda said. “It’s trying to cross the road.”

“Why are you worried about a caterpillar?” Karen asked.

“It’s a living thing, too,” Linda said. “And it’s a very pretty one.”

They watched the caterpillar. Karen started to worry, too. There were so many fast cars. So many bikes sped past.

“It’s very fast for a caterpillar, isn’t it?” Karen said. “I hope it makes it over to the other side.”

A dog came over and sniffed the caterpillar. “Go away!” said Linda. “Do not eat our friend!”

“It’s scary,” Karen said. “That beautiful caterpillar could get run over by a car. It could be stepped on by someone. It could cut itself on broken glass.”

“Look! It made it across!” Linda said. It had been dangerous, but the caterpillar was finally on the other side.

“That was very exciting,” Karen said. “I’m glad the caterpillar was so lucky.”
